SP Taylor State Park closed to camping and visitation Tuesdays, Wednesdays, and Thursdays through March 2012

SAN RAFAEL - Beginning December 6th, 2011, due to ongoing budgetary restrictions State Parks will be implementing additional service reductions at Samuel P. Taylor State Park.

The park will be closed Tuesdays, Wednesdays, and Thursdays of each week. The closure includes campgrounds, picnic areas, parking lots and restrooms, and is expected to last until the end of March, 2012.

The family campground will operate on a first-come, first-served basis Friday – Sunday nights. All group campsites at Devil's Gulch and Madrone, as well as the Irving Group picnic area, remain closed until further notice.

For additional information please check www.parks.ca.gov/samuelptaylor or call the park at (415) 488-9897.
